

STEP Forum
“Translating Research Advances for Health Care Providers and Patients: The Knowledge to Action Process”
February 8, 2011
8:30 am-12:30 pm
Natcher Auditorium, NIH Campus

AGENDA

- 8:30-8:35      Introduction, Yasaman Shirazi, Ph.D. (sub-committee chair)
- 8:35-9:40      Science of Dissemination and Implementation
- 8:35      Title: “Advancing Dissemination and Implementation Research at NIH”
- David Chambers, Ph.D., NIMH, NIH, Maryland
- 9:00      Title: “Research to Reality: The Evidence-Based Triangle”
- Russ Glasgow, Ph.D., NCI, NIH, Maryland
- 9:25      Q&A
- 9:45-10:20      Knowledge to Action Process (case examples)
- 9:45      Title: “Translating Evidence into Clinical Practice”
- Beverly Green, M.D., M.P.H., Group Health Research Institute, Washington State
- 10:10      Q&A
- 10:20-10:35      Break
- 10:35-11:45      Knowledge to Action Process (case examples, cont’d)
- 10:35      Title: “Large-Scale Implementation and Dissemination in Regions”
- George Isham, M.D., HealthPartners, Minnesota
- 11:00      Q&A

11: 10 Title: “Translation and Dissemination to Consumers:
Getting on the Same Page”

John Santa, M.D., M.P.H., Consumer Reports Health Ratings
Center, New York State

11:35 Q&A

11:45-12:30 Panel Discussion and Q/A

All Speakers

12:30 Adjournment